

MAHARASHTRA BAMBOO PROMOTION FOUNDATION

REQUIRES

MANAGER- NATURAL RESOURCES

Maharashtra Bamboo Promotion Foundation is a recently set up not for profit company for promoting the bamboo sector in Maharashtra. It is promoted by Government of Maharashtra and Tata Trusts. Its administrative office is in Mumbai.

The Foundation is recruiting a Manager (Natural Resources) whose primary responsibility will be to augment and strengthen the farm bamboo stock in Maharashtra , qualitatively and quantitatively. The candidate is expected to work closely with farmers, cooperatives, plant nursery owners and others. This is a senior position.

Qualification:

Candidates must have a life science background (botany/agriculture/forestry), with a capacity to learn about bamboo related issues quickly. He should be an outgoing person with good communication skills, as he has to facilitate partnerships with organisations and strategically work for developing the sector. He should have some exposure to/ understanding of socio- economic condition of rural Maharashtra.

Candidates should be ideally between 30-40 years, with about eight years of field experience, in similar development /extension work. He should have initiative and be a self starter. Knowledge of Marathi and English is essential. He should be willing to undertake field travel in Maharashtra frequently.

Candidates who may not have life sciences background but otherwise have adequate experience and fulfill other requirements will also be considered.

The candidate, will have option of having his headquarters in Mumbai/Pune/Nasik

Interested candidates may send their biodata ( hard and soft copies) with salary expectations and other details by December 20th, 2019 to Maharashtra

Bamboo Promotion Foundation, Flat 7, 2nd Floor, Jonette Building, diagonally opposite Noble Chemists, Jame Jamshed Road, Matunga East, Mumbai 400019 phones: 022/24167549 email : mahabamboofoundation@gmail.com